Glasgow

True/False Questions

1. Glasgow is the largest city in Scotland.

(True)

2. The University of Glasgow was founded in the 19th century.

(False) - It was founded in 1451.

3. Glasgow is famous for building ships along the River Clyde.

(True)

4. The Kelvingrove Art Gallery and Museum is known for modern art only.

(False) – It has many kinds of art, including old paintings and sculptures.

5. Celtic and Rangers are two famous football teams from Glasgow.

(True)

Comprehension Questions

1. What does the name "Glasgow" mean?

The name "Glasgow" means "dear green place."

2. What important event happened in Glasgow in 1451?

The University of Glasgow was founded in 1451.

3. What was Glasgow known for during the 18th and 19th centuries?

Glasgow was known for its industries, especially shipbuilding, textiles, iron, and steel.

4. What is the main building of the University of Glasgow known for?

The main building of the University of Glasgow is known for its beautiful architecture that looks like a castle.

5. What is Buchanan Street famous for?

Buchanan Street is famous for shopping and its lively atmosphere with street performers.

6. Which park is close to the University of Glasgow?

Kelvingrove Park is close to the University of Glasgow.

7. What can visitors see at the Riverside Museum?

Visitors can see old cars, trains, bicycles, boats, and other transport-related exhibits at the Riverside Museum.

8. Who is Charles Rennie Mackintosh, and what is he famous for?

Charles Rennie Mackintosh was a famous architect and designer from Glasgow. He is known for designing buildings and furniture, including the Glasgow School of Art.

9. What is the Old Firm?

The Old Firm refers to the rivalry between Glasgow's two football teams, Rangers and Celtic.

10. Why are the people of Glasgow known for being welcoming?

The people of Glasgow are known for being welcoming because they are friendly, have a great sense of humor, and love to talk to visitors. Especially as many visitors go to Edinburgh instead.