

Newcastle upon Tyne:

Answers to True/False Questions

1. True – Hadrian’s Wall was built by the Romans near Newcastle.
2. True – The Tyne Bridge opened in 1928.
3. False – The Discovery Museum focuses on Newcastle’s industrial past, not natural history.
4. False – The Newcastle Science Festival is about science, not movies.
5. True – People from Newcastle are called Geordies.

Answers to Open-ended Comprehension Questions

1. Who built Hadrian's Wall near Newcastle, and why?
The Romans built Hadrian’s Wall to protect their empire from northern tribes.
2. What is special about the Millennium Bridge?
The Millennium Bridge is special because it tilts to let boats pass, and it looks like a blinking eye when it moves.
3. Which industries were important in Newcastle during the 18th and 19th centuries?
Coal mining and shipbuilding were important industries in Newcastle during that time.
4. What can you learn about in the Great North Museum?
The Great North Museum has exhibitions about the history of the region, ancient Egypt, natural history, and even dinosaurs.
5. Who is Earl Grey, and what is Grey’s Monument?
Earl Grey was a British Prime Minister, and Grey’s Monument is a tall statue in Newcastle built to honor him.
6. What is Newcastle famous for in the world of football?
Newcastle is home to Newcastle United Football Club, and its stadium, St. James’ Park, can hold over 52,000 people.
7. What are two popular festivals in Newcastle?
Two popular festivals are the Newcastle International Film Festival and the Newcastle Science Festival.
8. Where can people go shopping in Newcastle?
People can go shopping at Eldon Square and Grainger Market.
9. What is the Angel of the North made from, and how big is it?
The Angel of the North is made from metal, is 20 meters tall, and has a wingspan of 54 meters.
10. Name one traditional food or drink from Newcastle.
One traditional drink is Newcastle Brown Ale, and one traditional food is the Stottie Cake.